I have two agendas tonight.

#1: Give you the most practical training you've ever had on growing your beauty business.

Let me show you with my own numbers.

A lash client who comes every 3 weeks comes in about 17 times a year.

Now add a $30 brow wax and tint to those appointments.

17 × $30 = $510

Now add a $30 brow wax and tint to those appointments.

That's $510 more a year. Same client. Same visit.

I'm helping my client kill two birds with one stone.

Using skills and clients I already have.

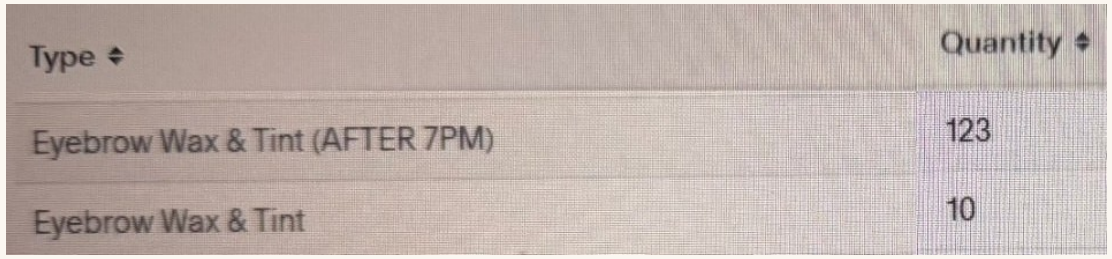

17 × $30 = $510

Here's what that add-on did in my studio last year:

| Type | Quantity |
| --- | --- |
| Eyebrow Wax & Tint (AFTER 7PM) | 123 |
| Eyebrow Wax & Tint | 10 |

123 after-hours wax and tints ×

$60 = $7,380

10 regular wax and tints x $30 = $300

$7,680 from one add-on.

Same clients. Skills I already had.

And notice: after 7 PM, that same wax and tint is $60.

Getting paid more for your time is a revenue opportunity too.

But I see about 77 clients.

But I see about 77 clients.

Say only half add it at every visit: 38 clients.

38 × $510 = $19,380 a year.

$19,380 possible. $7,680 made.

I had spent months and thousands of dollars on trainings, mentorships, and consultation calls.

I had spent months and thousands of dollars on trainings, mentorships, and consultation calls.

They weren't scams. But some weren't as valuable as I hoped.

I took one or two things from each one.

I had spent months and thousands of dollars on trainings, mentorships, and consultation calls.

They weren't scams. But some weren't as valuable as I hoped.

I took one or two things from each one.

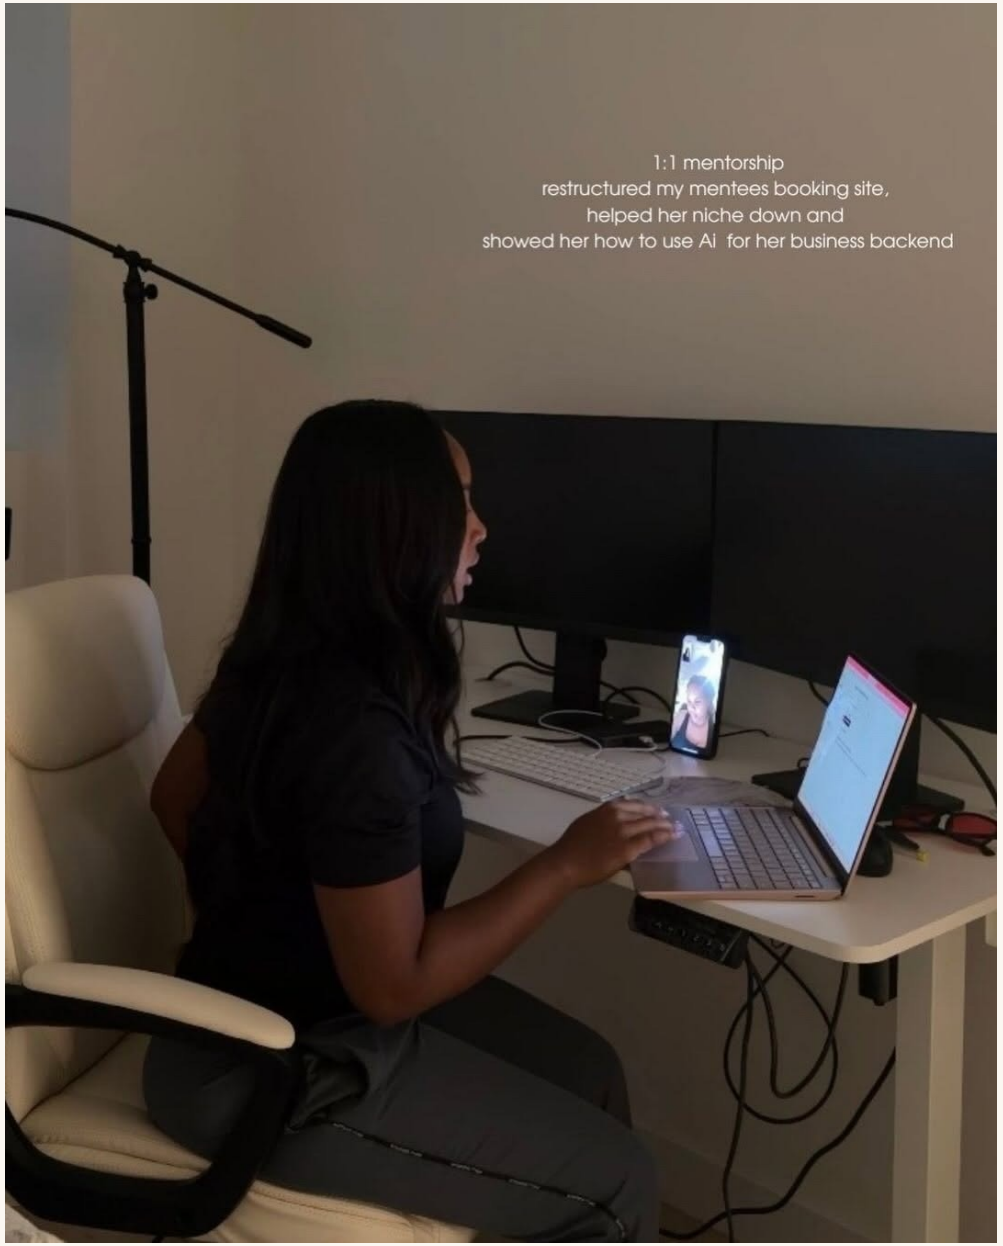

And some really showed me the power of investing in yourself with the right people, and how you can avoid years of stress.

Then I mixed those pieces with my own research, learning, and experience.

Then I mixed those pieces with my own research, learning, and experience.

And everything clicked.

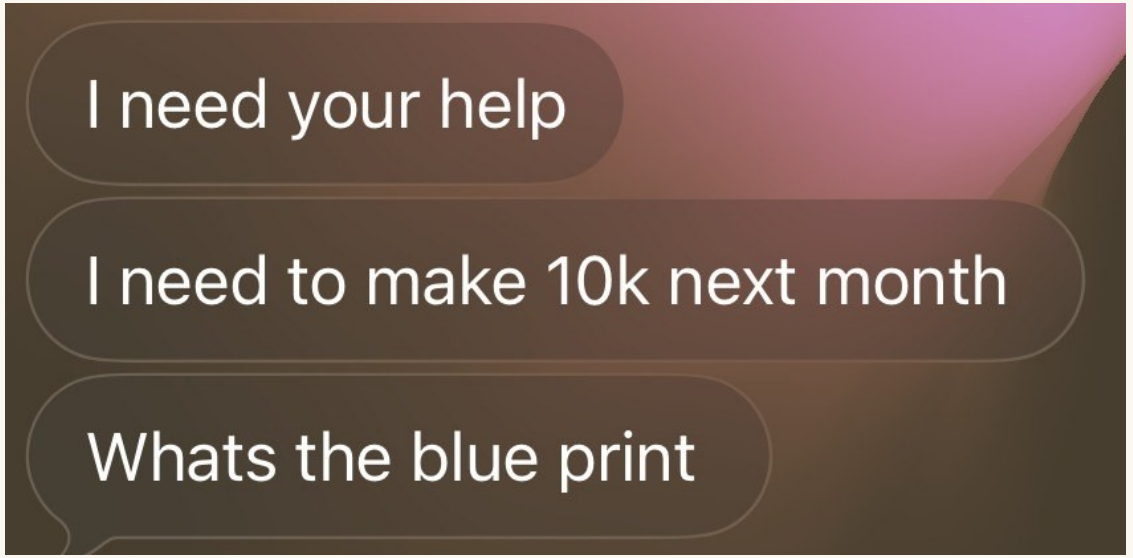

I got so booked I had to restructure my hours, limit my appointments, and turn away clients I couldn't take.

Working wasn't a survival need anymore.

It became a choice.

Then other pros started asking me how.

I know what it's like to struggle, try different things, and get generic information that doesn't change your business.

So I promised myself I'd share the information and resources I wish I had when I was figuring it out alone.

Tonight, I want to be that for you.

So far tonight…

You found your positioning.

You learned the 3 kinds of posts and the proof ladder.

You found the money already sitting in your chair.

Do you see why clients need a reason to choose you, not just good work?

Type YES

Do you see how 3 kinds of posts move a stranger to a booking?

Do you believe there's money sitting in the clients you already have?

Do you want a business that pays more and costs your body less?

Would it help to have someone look at your business and tell you exactly what to fix first?

If we could package everything you learned tonight, with me building it with you week by week, would you want to move forward?

Remember my two agendas?

#1: The best training you've had on growing your beauty business.

If I delivered on #1, let's talk about #2.

You have two choices.

Choice 1: Take what you learned tonight and do it on your own.

I'll be cheering for you.

Choice 2: Build it with me, for 8 weeks, with a small group of pros who get it.

So I built something for exactly this.

Remember this?

The Beauty Business Blueprint

An 8-week group mentorship where you build a beauty business that pays more and costs your body less.

It's not another course you buy and never finish.

It's not another course you buy and never finish.

It's 8 weeks of building your business, live, with me and a small group of pros who get it.

What I do:

Teach you live every week.

Give you feedback.

Hold you accountable.

What you do:

Show up, live or on replay.

Do the weekly homework.

Put it into your business.
